

Amelia Carole Feuerbacher Weaver, loving mother, daughter, sister, and girlfriend, passed away on Thursday, November 8, 2018.

Amy has been capturing hearts and fascinating people since the day she was born. The fifth child of eight children born to Bill and Margarita Feuerbacher, Amy loved being part of her big family. She was a gentle soul whose laughter was appreciated by all who knew her. Amy was a very beautiful, petite person who had her own unique style and sense of humor. Many friends and family enjoyed receiving clever little texts and memes from her. It was her way of sharing happiness, especially if you were down. Empathetic and never judgmental, Amy was a wonderful listener and was always willing to be a tiny but strong shoulder to cry on. Amy never hesitated to try to help when someone was struggling. She also loved chocolate because she would say that chocolate always made things better. Her father and her used to share little notes that read "I love you more than chocolate."

Amy was involved in her community. She served on the Diaper Bank Committee of the local chapter of Junior League, an organization focused on community outreach. Amy was a member of the Young Professionals Group, had an excellent work ethic, and loved her job at Brown and Brown Insurance. She also took time out of her busy schedule to participate in fundraisers at her childhood parish, Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church. She enjoyed giving back to her community while spending time with her parents and siblings when she was available.

In addition to her parents, Amy is survived by her son Tristan Calem Weaver, her siblings Alicia Harvey (Feuerbacher), Alejandro Feuerbacher, Adriana Ortiz (Feuerbacher), Ana Marie Seiple (Feuerbacher), Andrea Criswell (Feuerbacher), Adelina Feuerbacher, Andres Feuerbacher, her loving boyfriend Michael Schmieder, her grandmother Joyce Ann Feuerbacher, and many cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Amy adored her son Tristan, a clever and sweet boy who loved her very much. She did her best to ensure Tristan knew just how much he meant to her. She missed him dearly when he was away, but always looked forward to seeing him again.

Although not formally announced, Amy intended to marry her best friend, Michael Schmieder and start a family in the coming year. Along with Tristan and any future children, they would have made a beautiful family.

We are all deeply saddened by Amy's sudden passing, but find comfort in the knowledge that she is with the Lord, and no longer in pain. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. May she rest in the Peace of Christ and His Mercy, surrounded by those who loved her and went before her into eternal Life.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, Amy's loved ones would appreciate a donation in her honor and memory to one of the following organizations:

National Alliance on Mental Illness

Central Florida Pregnancy Center

